

Winter Training Invitation for Olympic Qualifiers

The Easton Foundations and the Easton Newberry Sports Complex, in together with USAA are pleased to announce the free use of their facility (Newberry Florida, winter of 2011/12*) to all those who are successful in making the first stage (top 16) of the Olympic trials at the Texas Shootout Sep 29- Oct 1.

Easton Foundations programs attempt to promote and develop Olympic-style Archery and aid athletes in reaching their goals of becoming the next Olympic Champion.

The Easton Newberry Sports Complex houses one of the best archery facilities in the country, as well as some of the best resources available to both archers and their coaches. During winter, weather in Florida is mild and perfect for athletes who are looking to shoot outdoors, in preparation for the second and third Olympic trials.

Athletes and their coach will have access to:

- Fully Air-conditioned Indoor archery range (up to 25 meters)
- Outdoor undercover shooting range (fully powered and lit for night training sessions)
- Access to Slo-motion capture, Dartfish software, and a range of bio-feedback tools
- Access to Easton Newberry's High Performance equipment store
- Access to Easton Newberry's bow maintenance area
- Fitness course

All parties interested in booking training times should contact Head Archery Coach, Robert Turner, at the Easton Newberry Sports Complex. Special room rates are available at the host hotel, Best Western Gateway Grand.
www.gatewaygrand.com

For more information contact,

Robert Turner
Head Archery Coach
Easton Newberry Sports Complex
Ph: 352-474-6334
Email: rturner@esdf.org

Please note that Easton Foundations will not cover any travel expenses occurred. Only free training at ENSC is offered.

* Dates available are: December 1, 2011 – February 28, 2012.

 Indoor range available outside of facility class times only

 Equipment use allowed at Head Coaches discretion